Probate, Trusts & Administration of Estates Planning for the future

What is involved?

If someone has passed away, you can rely on our renowned Private Client team to take care of the essentials. Probate, Trusts and Administration of Estates can be highly confusing – especially when there is already a lot to deal with.

Whether you need help proving an ambiguous Will, enforcing the practicalities of Estate Administration, or winding up a Trust, our in-depth technical knowledge and experience can give you peace of mind. We can advise on how to deal with property, assets, the Inland Revenue or debts.

Supported by a range of solicitors from different areas, our combined expertise will help you wind up the estate as efficiently as possible. Our team can also assist with creating Trusts, helping you to manage your own wealth effectively.

Freeths' dedicated Probate, Trusts & Administration of Estates team will support you in organising, managing and safeguarding you and your family's interests. We can advise you on Gift Applications and Inheritance Tax Planning, Personal Injury Trusts, Personal Tax, Probate, Trusts and Wills.

You can rely on our lawyers to be honest, sensitive and to explain everything clearly. Our Contentious Trusts & Probate team can help with disputes too.

Why choose Freeths?

- Our experienced lawyers help to relieve stress by supporting you with complex processes
- A national reputation for offering clear advice to executors, trustees and beneficiaries
- Experts in Dispute Resolution and Finance on hand to advise on family issues or money matters
- We demystify the jargon in this complicated area of law, leaving you to get on with life

We can advise you on Gift Applications and Inheritance Tax Planning, Personal Injury Trusts, Personal Tax, Probate, Trusts and Wills. You can rely on us to be honest and to explain everything clearly.

By bringing together lawyers with legal, accountancy and tax backgrounds, we offer a full spectrum of services to organise your finances. From preparing trust assets to implementing the terms of a will, we can assist you every step of the way.

What legal guides say about our Probate, Trusts & Estates team

"The team at Freeths LLP combines 'local expertise and regional strength' with 'appreciation of long-term client relationships'." "High-net-worth individuals, entrepreneurs and farmers are among their clients."
