

Emma Lythgoe

Senior Associate

📞 0345 077 9561 ✉ emma.lythgoe@freeths.co.uk

Emma is a senior associate in the London Competition team. She advises on a range of UK competition law issues, including merger control and behavioural issues, and also has experience of national security and investment, compliance and regulatory and competition litigation.

Emma has recently joined from BT Plc, where she has spent the vast majority of her career so far, and is an expert on telecommunications. She also completed the Postgraduate Diploma in EU Competition Law at King's College London in 2019.

In recent years, Emma has taken a keen interest in Pro Bono, working with and supporting three main charities: Cancer Research UK; Family Action; and The Brooke Hospital for Animals.