

Heloise Horton

Managing Associate, Knowledge
Management Lawyer

📞 0345 050 3654 ✉️ heloise.horton@freeths.co.uk

Heloise Horton has almost 20 years' experience in dealing with commercial real estate both at the coal face as a transactional lawyer and currently as Knowledge Management Lawyer.

She provides technical and transactional support to the Real Estate lawyers across all of our offices and is responsible for keeping the Real Estate lawyers and their clients up to date, providing training and current awareness.

Legal Services

Real Estate

- Managing and developing content and delivery – an ongoing process of curating, packaging and sharing content and expertise to ensure a high standard of client service.
- Current awareness – keeping Real Estate lawyers and their clients up to date with changes in the law that impact on how they do business.
- Learning and development – organising and delivering training to lawyers and clients on all aspects of commercial real estate.
- Business development – working with the Real Estate Group and our Client Services team on tenders, pitches and presentation. Also, design input into the Real Estate Group marketing material and publications.
- Compliance – guiding lawyers through the regulatory framework; working in conjunction with our Head of Risk and Compliance and his team, focusing on client care, matter management and technical competence.

- Legal tech – liaising with our Innovation and Delivery team on processes, systems and applications to maintain efficiency and consistency.

Sectors