Peter has extensive experience of acting for clients on all aspects of real estate work, specialising in commercial property investment, development and management work as well as advising in the education sector.

Real Estate

Peter advises a large range of clients including substantial land owning companies, investors, developers and individuals. The areas in which he has considerable expertise include commercial property acquisitions (including site assembly) and disposals, landlord and tenant matters, investment schemes, development and portfolio management.

Selected Cases

- Leading on a sale and leaseback arrangement for a global company forward funded by an investment fund. Negotiating complex documentation with the developer and fund as well as co-ordinating specialist planning and construction advice to meet the client's expectations and the funds requirements.
- Peter dealt with the grant, on behalf of the Landlord, of the vast majority of leases and associated management work at the Royal Albert Dock commercial and residential areas for more than 25 years.
