

Rhiannon Murphy

Associate

📞 0345 030 5655

✉️ rhiannon.murphy@freeths.co.uk

Rhiannon graduated from Sheffield Hallam University in 2017 with an Honours Law Degree and went on to study her Legal Practice Course and Masters, part time at BPP University Law School Leeds, whilst working full time as a Paralegal in a firm in South Yorkshire.

Rhiannon qualified as a Dispute Resolution Solicitor in March 2021, having completed seats in Dispute Resolution, Employment and Private Client.

In April 2021, Rhiannon dual qualified with her SRA accredited Civil Higher Rights of Audience, joining just 37% of qualified solicitors as a Solicitor Advocate. With this qualification, Rhiannon can personally represent clients in all Courts, to provide a complete advocacy service.

Rhiannon advises a wide range of clients in the commercial sector including individuals, companies and charities.

Rhiannon has had exposure to a variety of complex disputes throughout her career, including but not limited to: Alternative Dispute Resolution; Construction; Contract; Commercial Litigation; Debt Recovery; Inheritance, Wills and Probate; Insolvency; Landlord and Tenant; Professional Negligence; Property; Shareholder and Partnership; Supply of Goods and Services; Trusts and Claims in Equity.