

Thomas Goodwin

Senior Associate

Tom's continuous help and advice has been greatly appreciated and valued by the Kingsley Healthcare Group. Tom is pragmatic, reliable and displays a positive "can-do" attitude which makes him a pleasure to work with. Tom gets on with other lawyers and stakeholders involved in transactions, to make sure our matters are dealt with smoothly and efficiently. Tom has a great level of knowledge and experience in the care real estate sector – and he's now an invaluable asset to the Kingsley Team.

(Daya Thayan, CEO, Kingsley Healthcare Group)

📞 0345 274 6905 ✉ thomas.goodwin@freeths.co.uk

A Senior Associate in the Freeths' Care department, Tom advises clients on a variety of real estate and corporate matters within the care sector. These transactions include real estate and/or corporate acquisitions and disposals, real estate finance, property development and institutional sale & leaseback transactions.

Tom also has a wide range of experience in dealing with a variety of commercial property transactions including landlord and tenant matters involving commercial leases and leasehold management, acquisitions and disposals (acting for investors, developers and occupiers), property development and real estate aspects of corporate transactions.